

LABELLING WORKSHOPS 2011

The workshop will cover the requirements of the new regulations coming into effect in South Africa in March 2012.

- International Food law- how does South Africa fit in?
- Overview of Basic labelling requirements
- Nutrition Information & Claims
- Supplier requirements in terms of food labelling
- How do agricultural standards and other regulations fit into the labelling regulations?

Who should attend?

It is aimed at any person dealing with food product labels:

- New product development managers
- Quality controllers
- Food technologists

Why should you attend?

- Learn the practical aspect of designing products and labels in terms of the regulations.
- Small group so allows for interaction and question time.
- Focal Food will provide you with practical guidance documentation and a disk filled with additional regulatory requirements.

Attendees comments

"I just want to thank you for a really informative course [on food labelling]. The course material is so thorough and complete. Thank you so much!"

Mariana Vermeulen, Afoodable

"Thank you very much for a very informative and great workshop. ..., I [have] attended quite a few of these labelling workshops but yours was the Best!"

Mareth Kellerman, International Nutrition & Sport SA

"Congratulations on a well-constructed and presented workshop"

Raymond Rudolph, International Nutrition & Sport SA

"A lot of information, well covered in a short period of time"

Odwa Phillip, Phyto-nutraceuticals cc

About the Presenter

Norah Hayes holds a BSc in Consumer Science from the University of Stellenbosch and studied international food law through Michigan State University. She has been consulting in food legislation for the past four years for both local and international markets.

Workshop Logistics

	Venue	Date	Time
Cape Town	River club, Observatory	27 October 2011	08h30 for 09h00 till 16h00

Cost: R1250-00 ex VAT

A 50% cancellation fee will be charged for all cancellations made less than 5 working days prior to the event. Only written cancellations will be accepted.

To book please contact Rushana Samsodien for an application form at admin@focalfood.co.za or contact 078 8244 685 for more information.